Factors that may lead to an increase in cost include:

Time Scales

For any transaction, the timescales are subject to change depending on when your offer is accepted and other factors, such as:

- how many parties are in the chain
- Whether the buyer has a mortgage in place
- Whether the buyer requests lease extension for a leasehold property
- Whether the searches flag up any issues
- Whether buyer's Survey shows up any issues
- The enquiries raised by the Buyer
- Obtaining information from Managing Agents

A typical transaction will take between 10-14 weeks. However, if any of the above apply or there are other factors we need to take into consideration, it may increase the time by a further 4-6 weeks and additional charges may occur. We will discuss this with you at the earliest opportunity, so you always have a clear picture of how long things are likely to take.
